

HOLIDAY news

Wishing you and your whānau a safe and happy holiday season!

Kia ora Roadstars,

Holiday season is here – making it even more important for everyone to remember my road safety tips and make safe choices when out and about! Take those extra few moments to ensure everyone is seated right and buckled in tight. We always check we've chosen the safest place to cross the road, then Stop, Look, Listen, and Link before stepping out. Make sure our helmets are fitted correctly before we jump on our bikes and scooters. Keep an eye out for those sneaky driveways – especially with visitors around – to make sure all children are safely out of the way before moving any vehicles.
